

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTES TO THE BATE PEDIGREE.

¶ "1598. Sep. Antonius Bate, olim mercator apud Turka in Tripoli qui quide' vir fuit pius, integer, et honestus omnib. deniq. amat dignus obijt morte pve-ccatiae Maij 15." (St. Alkmund's Register. See 'The Reliquary,' vol. x. p. 198, and vol. xi. p. 114. See also 'Reliquary,' vol. ii. pp. 185, 186.)

¶ "A.D. 1604. Robert Bate, of Little Chester, co. Derby, gent. covenant with Edward Turville of Thurlston, Esq' that Nathaniel Bate, son and heir of the said Robert, should take to wife Jane, daughter of said Edward. The said Robert settles upon said Nathaniel and Jane and the heirs of their two bodies all his Lands and Tenements within the Manor of West Broughton, co. Derby, which said Robert had lately purchased of Edward Blunt, Esq'; also some houses in Derby, and other lands about Derby. The said Edward Turville gives with Jane his daughter, as her portion, the sum of £580. Dat. 1<sup>o</sup> Jac. I." (Nichols' Hist. Leicestersh. iv. 996.)

¶ "1632. 19 March. Whereas Katherine y<sup>e</sup> wyfe of Nathaniel Bate, of Little Chester, within y<sup>e</sup> parish of St. Alkmund's, Derby, being great with child and (by reason of her health) infirm and weak, and therefore not able to feed upon fish meats without apparent damage (as I am credibly informed) I doe therefore by these presents permitt (so far forth as by the statutes of the kingdom I may) unto y<sup>e</sup> said Katherine Bate to provide for herself, and to feed upon such flesh meates, as by the said statute are licenced, in this case during all y<sup>e</sup> time of her sickness and noe longer. In Witnesse whereof I have hereunto set my hand. H. COKE, Minister and Preacher of the word of GOD in the Parish of St. Alkmund's aforesaid. Test. Thomas Nash. (St. Alkmund's Register.)

¶ "To Nathaniel Bate, gentleman—

"Kind Sir, you once did send me (to your cost)

Where a loath'd life usurping Richard lost:

So may I lose mine own, when once I prove

To you ingrate, or BATE you sought in love.

For aith the Patron minds the Poet's art,

Well may you claim the tribute of my heart;

Who wish you Muse's industry repaid

With high respect, and mine her waiting maid."

Bancroft's 'Epigrams and Epitaphs,' 1639-40. (Nichols' Leicest. iii. *640.)

4. Jane Bate, bapt. at Ashby 30 April, 1688. Died without issue 28 Oct. 1759. Bur. with her sister Mrs. Johnson. Married to George Pilkington, of Packington, near Ashby, gent., who died 21 Sept. 1754. (Tomb at Packington.) Mr. P. was son of Thomas Pilkington, of Belton, gent., by Marie his wife, dau'r of the Rev. Barnabas Smith, Rector of North Witham, co. Lincoln, and his wife Hannah (dau'r of James Ayscough), and mother of Sir Isaac Newton. Named in her father's will. S.P.

¶ This is probably John Bate of Dronfield, co. Derby, who issued a token in 1666. Extracts from the Dronfield Parish Registers relating to him will be found in the 'Reliquary,' vol. v. p. 201.

¶ Stephen Flamstead, who died 1687, was the son of William F. of Little Hallam, co. Derby. He married firstly Mary, dau'r of John Spateman of Derby, ironmonger, and by her was father of the celebrated John Flamstead, the first Astronomer Royal, an account of whom, edited by Francis Baily, Esq., was printed by order of the Lords of the Admiralty in 1835. Mrs. Flamstead died 7 Sept. 1649, and Mr. Stephen F. married for his second wife Elizabeth, dau'r of Nathaniel Bate, as appears by the Bate pedigree entered 5 Aug. 1662, and by the parish register at West Hallam. (See 'Reliquary,' vol. i. 51, vol. xiv. 149-169, vol. xv. 34-38, and vol. xvi. 189-190.)

¶ To William Stephenson, Esq., of Drypool House, Hull, I am indebted for the following notices of the Drury family:—

"1643. Alderman Drury and 14 other principal inhabitants of Nottingham, for being opposed to the removal of the town's cannon to the castle, were arrested by Colonel Hutchinson, the Governor and sent prisoners to Derby under an escort of Colonel Ireton. 1645, William Drury the elder, Alderman of Nottingham, bought Vault Hall for £103; the street where this hall stood has long been called Drury Hill. 1647, William Drury, Mayor. 1705, William Drury, one of the Sheriffs of Nottingham. 1707, William Drury, Mayor. 1733, William Drury, grandson of the Alderman, sold Vault Hall to Mr. Gawthorne for £500."

In the 'Reliquary,' vol. xi., and in Glover's Hist. Derbyshire, vol. ii. pt. i. p. 367, are pedigrees of Lowe of Denby, and from them it appears that William Drury, Alderman of Nottingham, married in 1717 Anne, dau'r of John Lowe of Denby, Esq., J.P. for co. Derby. Their only son and heir, William Drury, marr. in 1748 Mary, dau'r of Thomas Hunt of Nottingham (she survived her husband and died at Nottingham 19 Sept. 1791), and had with other issue William Drury Lowe of Locks Park, Esq., J.P. for co. Derby, who died 1827. Mr. Drury took the name and arms of Lowe on succeeding to the estates of that family.

NOTES TO KIRKLAND PEDIGREE.

- ¶ John Kirkland was Churchwarden of Ashbourne 1698.
- ¶ Paul Kirkland by will (1714) gave all his lands in Wyaston (subject to the yearly payment of 20s. and 6d. to the Minister and Parish Clerk of Edlston) upon trust, as to one moiety of the rents and profits for the poor of Edlston and Wyaston, and the other moiety thereof to be distributed half yearly, or otherwise, to the poor of Yildersley and Painter's Lane, in the parish of Ashbourne, at the discretion of the Trustees, etc. (Mosse's 'Hist. of Ashbourne Church.')
- ¶ "August 7th 1747. M<sup>r</sup> Tho<sup>s</sup> Kirkland and M<sup>rs</sup> Dorothy Palmer both of Ashby de la Zouch were married with Licence by M<sup>r</sup> Peter Cowper, Vicar of Ashby." (Packington Par. Reg.)
- ¶ Dr. Kirkland was a very voluminous writer. Among his works are the following:—'Treatise on Gangrenes,' 1754; 'Essay on the Methods of suppressing Hemorrhage,' 1763; 'Essay on the Cure of Diseases caused by Fevers,' 1767; 'A Reply to Mr. Maxwell's Answer to Mr. Kirkland's Essay on Fevers,' 1769; 'Observations upon Mr. Pott's Remarks on Fractures,' 1770; 'Appendix to the Preceding,' 1771; 'Treatise on Childbed Fevers,' 1774; 'Animadversions on a Late Treatise on the Kink-Cough,' 1774; 'Thoughts on Amputation,' 1780; 'Enquiry into the Present State of Medical Surgery,' 2 vols.—Vol. I., 1783; Vol. II. (dedicated to Francis, Earl of Huntingdon), 1786; 'Commentary on Apoplectic and Paralytic Affections,' 1794; 'Observations on the Use of the Sponge after Amputation' ('Medical Observations and Enquiries,' vol. ii.); 'Observations on the Use and Abuse of Mercury in the Case of Syphilis' ('London Medical Journal,' vol. vii.); 'An Essay on the Inseparability of the Different Branches of Medicine, etc.' (dedicated to Francis, Earl of Huntingdon); 'An Account of a Distemper among Horned Cattle at Caulk in Derbyshire in 1783.'
- Dr. Kirkland is one of the principal characters in a novel entitled 'Ferrers, A Romance of the Reign of George the Second,' by Mr. Charles Ollier. (Three volumes, 8vo, London, Richard Bentley; no date.) This

- romance is founded upon the unfortunate murder of John Johnson by Lawrence, Earl Ferrers. A full account of the trial was printed in 1760.
- ¶ For notices of the Dalby family, see Nichols' 'Hist. Leicest.' iii., pp. 774, 782, 854, 1089, and iv., part 2, 463.
- ¶ Author of 'A Defence of Infant Baptism, etc.,' in reply to the Rev. Mr. Wakefield, 1781, printed at Warrington by William Eyres; 'The Practice of Extremepore Preaching recommended, etc.,' 1794, printed at Warrington by Wm. Eyres; 'The Minister's Enquiry into the State of His People, etc.,' 1798, printed by W. Eyres; and a Volume of Sermons published after his death, 1805, printed at Warrington by J. Haddock.
- ¶ Authoress of 'Miscellaneous Poems,' dedicated to Lady Charlotte Rawdon, 1802, printed at Derby; 'Elegies on the Deaths of Several of Her Valuable Friends, etc.,' 1805, printed at Burton upon Trent.
- ¶ Author of 'A History of Southport,' 'A Chronological List of Trades,' 'Report upon Cholera,' 'Lissa,' 'Translations from Virgil,' 'Poems,' etc.
- ¶ Our uncle Frank Kirkland sold Kirkland House (not far from Sudbury Park, Staffordshire), and an estate at Deveridge, during the lifetime of his father; this took place within my recollection. The Kirklands I believe lived at Kirkland House before they removed to Ashbourne; it was standing thirty years ago, now probably vanished (1868). (Information of the late Miss Jane Chapman, daughter of T. Fowler Chapman and his wife, Jane Kirkland.)
- ¶ Author of 'An Appendix to an Inquiry into the Present State of Medical Surgery, by the late Thomas Kirkland, M.D.' Dedicated to Francis, Earl of Moira. 1813. London, pp. 144.
- ¶ Sold his estate in Peckleton, 53 acres 2 roods, to Mr. Boulby of Tooley in 1808.
- ¶ The Smith arms, impaling Arg. a balista or catapult azure, thereon a stone or, are upon old plate now in the possession of Mrs. Kirkland, Ashby
